

The Bosses Have 2 Parties, Working People Have None

The wealthy classes use their money to control everything.

- They pretend that what's good for them is good for us.

That's why the working class needs its own party.

- Because what serves the wealthy classes does not serve the rest of us.

We are not one big happy family in this country.

The problems we face can only be solved in ways that serve the interests of working people OR of the wealthy capitalist class.

- Inadequate schools, not enough good housing, roads and infrastructure that fall to pieces, public transportation, medical care we can't afford.
- Crime and imprisonment, wars.
- Problems women have who have children and must work.
- Problems caused by the racist organization of society.
- Even problems in the workplaces – because those problems can't be solved at one plant or office, not even at one company by itself.

The workers have answers to these problems that would serve most people in this country, not only themselves, but other classes, too.

- We all need good schools, better and cheaper medical care, for example, but most schools are cheated of money so the banks get bailouts, and medical care is inadequate because profit determines what drugs are produced, etc.

The Working Class Needs Its Own Party, A Party that Could Speak for Most People
